NEVER MISS OUT

 CULTUREFOX

The Arts Council's new, upgraded CULTUREFOX events guide is now live. Free, faster, easy to use – and personalised for you. Never miss out again.

Welcome...

to the fifth Tread Softly... festival programmed in partnership by Blue Raincoat Theatre Company, Hawk's Well Theatre, The Model and Sligo County Council running in conjunction with the 57th International Yeats Summer School. The festival offers a broad range of arts events from exhibitions, theatre, music and guided walks through Yeats County. This year's highlights include the new Jack B Yeats A Broadside acquisition by The Model; Tommy Emmanuel at the Hawk's Well Theatre; A Terrible Beauty at the Hyde Bridge Gallery in association with Hamilton Gallery; and as part of this year's A Country Under Wave, a production of The Cat & the Moon by Blue Raincoat Theatre Company.

This year also sees the inauguration of The Sligo Festival, a coming together of a number of festivals throughout Sligo including Tread Softly... to create a central cultural event for Sligo at the peak of this the tourist season.

We hope you are able to enjoy some of the events we have on offer this year.

Jack B Yeats A Broadside

An exhibition of the very special new acquisition to The Niland Collection - a complete set of Jack B Yeats' A Broadside. Seldom available for the public to see, this rare and fascinating publication was edited by Jack Butler Yeats and published in collaboration with his sisters Elizabeth and Susan, in a monthly series between June 1908 and May 1915.

Jack B Yeats Painted Universe

From political works executed in the 1920s to the great masterpieces of the late 1940s, this exhibition weaves its way through the dominant concerns of Jack Yeats' artistic practice. When viewed together with A Broadside one can trace the beginnings of the characters that captivate the artist throughout his working life – the sailor, the clown, the pirate, the outlaw and the wayfarer.

Elizabeth Price

The Model is delighted to present an exhibition with Turner Prize-winning artist Elizabeth Price in her first Irish solo show. Price uses high-definition digital video, with live action, motion graphics, 3D computer animation and sound to interrogate and map the value and meaning of cultural artefacts, collections and archives. Price's exhibition at The Model will include her Turner Prize-winning work The Woolworth's Choir, as well as User Group Disco, 2009 and her latest work K, 2015 - none of which have been shown in Ireland previously. Also on view will be two site-specific wall drawings created especially for this exhibition.

Naomi Draper & Mark Garry A Seed's A Star

Naomi Draper and Mark Garry involve elements of nature in their work in a variety of ways - making works that are measured and quiet, often requiring meticulous systems of construction. Both artists integrate craft techniques as a means to explore our associative connection with the natural world. This collection of sculptures and two-dimensional works subtly questions the fragility of the relationship between humans and nature, and the poetic potential of plants.

Invited Artists A Terrible Beauty

Hamilton Gallery invited Ireland's leading contemporary artists to create an image 20cm x 20cm inspired by WB Yeats' poem Easter, 1916. The exhibition A Terrible Beauty is Born features the work of over 70 visual artists. It is a dynamic, provocative and comprehensive response, 100 years on, by the shapers of our contemporary visual arts culture to the events of 1916, with WB Yeats' iconic Easter, 1916 poem used as a springboard.

Sleeping Venus

and other New Works

The work presented is the fruit of an engagement, a hands-on wrestle, in my studio with printmaking, sculpture - in some cases unfinished sculpture - as well as paintings. As a result this exhibition entails a cross-referencing of these to present a dynamic visual conversation that produces closely related but distinct works in different mediums. This may include working drawings, prints, maquettes, a large work in progress etc. This trilingual approach is my means of production and is an absolute necessity in my pursuit of finding completion.

WB Yeats The Cat & The Moon

Two beggars, one blind and one lame, travel to the well of St Coleman hoping to be cured of their afflictions. St Coleman gives both beggars a choice between being cured or blessed.

Hawk's Well Theatre Celebration Night

On this very special night we celebrate the historic lifespan of Sligo's local theatre. Opened in January 1982, the idea of a theatre for Sligo was initiated by a group of local drama enthusiasts and thirty-four years later the theatre still stands tall. Hosting over 50,000 visitors each year, and with over 2,000 local people trading its boards annually, this July a selection of its favourite performers and closest friends gather to pay due tribute to the much-loved Sligo theatre. Featuring; Eamon Morrissey, Michael Harding, Sandy Kelly, Cathy Jordan, Brian Leyden, Kieran Quinn and many more.

Hosted by actor Pauline McLynn, proceeds from the night will go to the theatre's renovation fund to ensure this vital resource for future generations.

A Cuala Songbook & Daughters of Emer

A delightful double bill of locally connected theatre based on the lives of Susan and Elizabeth Yeats, Lily and Lolly

A Cuala Songbook, performed by Darina Gallagher and Sinead Murphy, is set in the Cuala Press and explores the poetry and plays the sisters publish for their brother Willie.

Daughters of Emer is a warm and humorous play about Lily and Lolly. Written and directed by John Carty, it is performed by Orla McSharry and Margaret Kilcoyne.

Tommy Emmanuel

Two-time Grammy nominee, Tommy Emmanuel is one of Australia's most respected musicians. The legendary guitarist has a professional career that spans five decades. Rather than using a whole band for melody, rhythm, bass, and drum parts, Tommy plays all that – and more – on one guitar. He has been voted Favourite Acoustic Guitarist in both Guitar Player Magazine and Acoustic Guitar Magazine's reader polls, and is a YouTube sensation. His videos have over 29,000,000 views and have led to sold out shows all over the world.

Competition prize-giving ceremony iYeats Poetry

The iYeats Poetry Competition is an annual online international poetry competition devised and run by the Hawk's Well Theatre. The competition is open to all those of 16 years of age and upwards, and has won a prestigious reputation for the calibre of both entrants and judges. An overall prize is awarded across the board of entries and an emerging prize is awarded to a young poet aged between 16-25 years of age.

The prize-giving ceremony and reading of the winning poems will take place following the second Yeats Summer School lecture at the theatre on Wednesday 27th July. Prize-giving will be hosted by this year's judges Colin Dardis and Moya Cannon.

WB Yeats Cathleen Ní Houlihan
